

Lab Exercises

1. Given the array through user input implement quick sort that simply chooses the middle element as the pivot and sort accordingly.
2. Given an array through user input, sort the array in ascending as well as descending order and return it using radix sort.
3. Given an array of integers through user input, sort the array in ascending as well as descending order and return it using Merge sort.